Weekly wonderings ...

I have been working for Bearfield for a number of years now; having three part time jobs, a lovely family and a crazy puppy can make life interesting. To help me cope, like majority of people, I have had to try to get into a routine of when I do things - one thing being I normally write the newsletter on a Wednesday, but this week was different, and I planed to do church work on Thursday morning.

When on Thursday morning the news of David being rushed into hospital, suffering from a suspected stroke came, my brain became a muddle and all I could do was pray. So when I finally started to prepare the newsletter that afternoon it was empty; I hadn't yet received David's article and no way could I expect an article from him now - so I thought I better get on with it, and I started to think how the church had come together in pray for David and Fi.

Bearfield is as many people say a lovely church. In times of crisis we pull together in prayer (or meal trains if needed). But what else is there in Bearfield that we could pull together to achieve? Where are our giftings?

David is no doubt going to need time to recover. We shouldn't expect him to be back doing everything as soon as he is out of hospital. So where can each of us help? We are in the middle of a series on the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. Is God calling you to a role within the church? Do you feel that you could help pastorally as a listening ear walking & taking, or are you felling called to lead a service or try out preaching as David spoke about last week? Perhaps God has put the children of the church on your heat and you want to help in JAM or Lighthouses.

As 1 Corinthians 12 v 12 says 'The human body has many parts, but the many parts make up one whole body. So it is with the body of Christ.' (NLT) We are all part of one body of Christ so let us all draw together to build up His church. Lets not sit back and see what we can 'get' from church, but let us have a passion to see what we can 'give'. Let us be strong together so all can face whatever difficulties life throws our way.

And a Paul says 'Finally, brothers and sisters, rejoice! Strive for full restoration, encourage one another, be of one mind, live in peace. And the God of love and peace will be with you.' (2 Corinthians 13 v 11)

Bearfield Structure and Roles Review group

The Leadership team and Trustees are very grateful to Sarah Ann Howes, Kathryn Maguire, Stuart Eaton and Neil Loescher who have agreed to help us to review the job descriptions and roles of Trustees, Leadership team and voluntary posts within the church. We have arranged to meet together on Saturday 11th June, at church where we will be drafting some proposals and putting these forward to the church in an open meeting on Thursday 7th July.

If you would like to find out more or have some suggestions or views that you would like to share regarding our current leadership and trustee structure please do seek out Helen Fuggle, Sue Glanville or myself to discuss your ideas or please email so that your views can read by all of us.

Many thanks,

William on behalf of the Trustees and Leadership team

JAM leader needed

Robert has come to the end of his time leading JAM and our gratitude and thanks go out to him. However, that means that there are Liz, Helen and Pip on the rota as leaders, so we desperately need another person willing to lead the group once every 4 weeks. Please pray about this and if you feel God encouraging you to do this invaluable work please email or contact me.

God bless you and enable you to be a blessing to others,

David
