New Banners for Church

Hello everyone. We started making new banners for church a while ago with ideas and help from our children and young people. For various reasons the project was put on hold but it would be great if we could now get them finished in time for Easter.

The theme is the fruit of the spirit; love, joy, peace etc. Galatians 5:22-23. It is an opportunity especially during Lent to focus on the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

Only a very basic ability to sew is required and you can choose to work in a group or to sew in your own time at home. We now need adults or older TGI, so if you would like to help please let me know and I will allocate materials.

Looking forward to hearing from you!

Love, Pip xx
