The Fabulous Choir Needs You!

Bearfield will be holding its annual Service of Lessons and Carols on 13th December at 6pm. That means that the Fabulous Choir will be swinging into fabulous action again, which means that it could include You! The choir is open to all ages and abilities: the only requirement is a bit of enthusiasm. You don't really need to be able to read music, as everything can be picked up by ear.

Practices will be Sundays 15 Nov, 22 Nov, 29 Nov and 6 Dec, 7-9pm, in the church. If you can't attend all the practices and need to catch up, Clive will run midweek catchup sessions at his home.

If you haven't already told Clive that you'll be joining this year's Fabulous Choir, please let him know asap (clive.tomlinson@nettrajectory.co.uk, 07769 149631) so that he can prepare.

If you have anything for the newsletter, please email Sarah-Ann by Wednesday on admin@bearfield.org

Rock UK ITP Update from Abbie

Hi all,

I have now spent my first 3 weeks in Scotland! I am part of a group of 18 young people on the Instructor Training Programme with Rock UK and we have all bonded really well and have become a solid team over the past few weeks. It's gone by so quickly yet it feels like I have done so much in the short time I've been here.

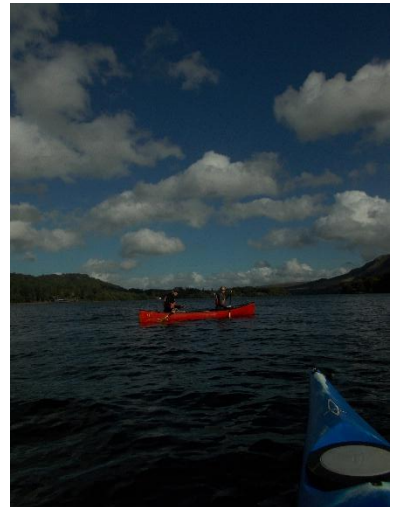

I have spent a week learning the basics of high ropes, another on paddlesports (during which we had a beautiful day out canoeing down Ullswater lake), and at the weekends I have been bouldering, mountain biking and exploring the local area.

Evenings are typically spent playing games, singing songs, swimming in the pool (and sometimes the freezing river!), going on walks and the occasional pub trip.

Amongst that there has also been wonderful time spent climbing Blencathra mountain in the lake district, reading and studying the bible, hearing talks from speakers, having spontaneous worship nights and attending the local church on Sundays. I have also become part of a small homegroup with people from Rock UK which has been lovely and we are embarking on studying the different meals Jesus shared with people.

This week I am spending 3 days learning different types of outdoor climbing and doing day trips out to high crags, the highest over 100 metres! The other 2 weekdays will be spent hearing a talk from a guest speaker.

I am looking forward to being home for half term and seeing you all at church on Sunday the 18th October where I would love to chat and answer any questions you might have about my adventures!

Please pray for:

- Continued good health and energy
- Opportunities to grow in my knowledge of God's love
- Great memories and an enjoyable next few weeks

Weekend 19th – 21st March '27

Last March our youth went to Rock Uk's Summit Centre for an amazing weekend. They had a lovely time and got to do a variety of activities, including instructor-lead activities on the Saturday afternoon. There was also lovely walks in the area, a nice garden to enjoy and plenty of board games. The Summit Centre also has a lovely coffee shop that is open during the day on a Saturday.

The youth have already asked to go back again this year, but this time we want to open it up to the whole church.

A rough plan for the weekend would be arrive Friday for dinner about 7pm, Saturday morning would be a time of worship together with a short talk, then on the afternoon you can opt into instructor lead activities or relax (for example in the coffee shop). Sunday morning would then be another time of worship together before lunch and heading home.

The Summit Centre is fully catered and has ensuite rooms of 4-6 people in bunk beds. There is also one twin accessible room available. The weekend would cost £116.71 per person (full board) and the three hour instructor lead activities is £33.06 per person.

Before we can book the accommodation we need to know numbers so please let SA know if any of your family would like to come.

NB. Your might even get to see Abbie in action.
